

Grief & Death

This listing includes selected resources which are suitable for adults with an intellectual disability, or can be used in conjunction with adults with an intellectual disability.

To request an item please phone 9387 0458 or email us at library@activ.asn.au

The complete library catalogue can be searched via the Activ Library website: <http://www.activ.asn.au/library>

- Am I Going To Die ? / Hollins, Sheila; Tuffrey-Wijne, Irene.

London, RCPsych Publications : 2009. 41 p.; 21 cm.

This book uses pictures to help someone with a learning/intellectual disability who is very ill, to understand more about their illness and about dying. A sample storyline is also included, with additional background information including organisations that can help.

CC 155.937 HOL

P12577 P12578

- Coping With Death

Rotherham, Speakup Self Advocacy : 1997. 1 videocassette (7 min.)

A British video that looks at what it means when somebody dies and what happens - the funeral and burial or cremation. People discuss what they felt like when somebody they loved died and the things that helped them feel better. For people with a disability.

CC 155.937 COP

P08550

- Everyone Dies One Day: Assisting People With An Autistic Spectrum Disorder To Understand The Concept Of Death, Loss And The Grieving Process. / O'brien, Kathleen. / AUTISM ASSOCIATION OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

West Perth, Autism Association : 1999.

Designed to assist people of all ages with an autism spectrum disorder to understand the concept of death, loss and the grieving process. Suitable for people with a disability

CC 155.937 OBR

P08714 P08713

Let's Talk About Death : A Booklet About Death And Funerals For Adults Who Have A Learning Disability / Watchman, Karen.

Edinburgh, Scottish Down's Syndrome Association : [2001]. 10p., ill.

A workbook written to support a person with an intellectual disability after someone close to them has died. In very simple terms it explains what happens when a person dies, the funeral, what they may be feeling and some aspects of the future that may be of concern to them.

CC 155.937 WAT

P09954

-

Talking Together About Death: A Bereavement Pack For People With Learning Disabilities, Their Families And Carers / Cooley, Joan; Mcgauran, Frankie.

Bicester, Oxon., Winslow : 2000. 46p., 111 cards

This resource pack is specifically designed for families and carers to share the experience of death and bereavement with people who have an intellectual disability. The pack consists of a user's guide including a list of additional resources and five sets of sensitively illustrated cards. Suitable for people with an intellectual disability

CC 155.937 COO

P09900

-

When Dad Died / Hollins, Sheila; Sireling, Lester.

London, Gaskell Press St George's Hospital Medical School : 2004. 28 p.

For adolescents and adults with intellectual disabilities, this book takes a gentle and straightforward approach to death in the family . This new edition answers questions about how we feel when someone dies, what happens after someone dies and how long it takes to get back to normal.

CC 155.937 HOL

P10882

-

When Dad Died / Hollins, Sheila; Sireling, Lester.

London, St George's Hospital Medical School : 1989. 61p., col. ill., 21cm + 1 sound cassette (17 min)

An gentle and honest story about the death of a father illustrated with colour pictures

CC 155.937 HOL

P12790

-

When Mum Died / Hollins, Sheila; Sireling, Lester.

London, Gaskell Press St George's Hospital Medical School : 2004. 28 p.

For adolescents and adults with intellectual disabilities, this book takes a gentle and straightforward approach to death in the family . This new edition answers questions about how we feel when someone dies, what happens after someone dies and how long it takes to get back to normal.

CC 155.937 HOL

P10883

-

When Mum Died / Hollins, Sheila; Sireling, Lester.

Lond., St. George's Hospital Medical School : 1989. 61p., col. ill., 21cm + 1 sound cassette (16 min)

This full colour picture book deals with the death of a mother in a gentle but honest way

CC 155.937 HOL

P12789

-

When Somebody Dies / Hollins, Sheila; Brighton, Catherine Ill.

London, Gaskell Press : 2003. 36 p. : col. ill.

This book pictorially tells the story of Mary, following the death of someone she loves. It shows how she gets help to understand her feelings and how her new knowledge helps her comfort a friend who has a similar experience. It is designed for people with an intellectual disability, a separate text and information being provided for support people.

CC 155.937 HOL

P10455

-

When Someone Dies : An Accessible Guide To Bereavement For People With Learning Difficulties And Their Carers / Mansfield, Michelle; Auckland, Peter; Evans, Anita.

Cambridge, Speaking Up : 2008. 23 p. ; 30 cm.

This booklet has been designed by people with intellectual or learning difficulties for use by other people with these disabilities and their carers, when someone dies. The aim is to guide them or others who may find it useful, through the bereavement process to help them deal with their loss.

CC 155.937 MAN

P12894

-