Activ™ Library

The Activ Library is a major information resource on disability in Western Australia and has a vast collection of books, journals, training materials, selected websites and audiovisual resources.

A resource for everyone

The collection has a strong focus on intellectual disability and also features resources related to other disability, developmental delay and learning difficulties. Our resources are suitable for parents, people with a disability, carers, teachers and professional staff.

We have more than 8000 items available that can assist with:

- Specific disability
- Education and integration
- Coping strategies
- Employment
- Sexuality
- Early intervention
- Social skills
- Literacy and numeracy
- Family issues
- Advocacy
- Accommodation
- Life stages – diagnosis, school, employment etc
- Independent living skills
- And much, much more

Parent Portal

Activ Library's Parent Portal provides a starting point for parents and carers needing current information about intellectual disability and autism spectrum disorders.

Quality information is vital for parents and carers in helping make decisions in the best interests of their child.

Activ Library's Parent Portal is a web-based information service that can help you find print, audiovisual and web resources.
