2020 Chevron City to Surf for Activ cancelled

Leading disability service provider Activ has cancelled the 2020 Chevron City to Surf for Activ, due to be held in August, in line with Federal and WA State Government directives around physical distancing and large group gatherings.

Activ CEO Danielle Newport said while Activ is saddened not to share in the excitement of WA's longest running and much-loved community fun run this year, the health and safety of the community come first.

"The Chevron City to Surf for Activ is Activ's largest annual fundraising event, with donations raised directed to care and support services for WA families living with disability.

"For those runners, walkers, rollers and volunteers who look forward to fundraising and hitting the pavement each year, we would greatly appreciate your continued support by donating to Activ via our website at <https://www.activ.asn.au/how-you-can-help/online-payments/donations/>," said Ms Newport.

"Your donations will support West Australians living with disability to access a range of community services that support their journey towards independence," she said.

"Our long-term sponsor and partner, Chevron Australia, has also pledged to continue to support us during these challenging times.

"We look forward to West Australians signing up for next year's event."

About Activ

Activ is the largest disability support provider in Western Australia. We provide individualised services for people living with intellectual disability. We provide services in accommodation, community, employment, training and education, short-term accommodation and behaviour support. Activ was founded in 1951 by a group of families who wanted more for their children who

Important Information

When referring to people with disability, we ask that you use the term 'living with disability', rather than 'disabled person' or 'the disabled'. The term 'Supported Employee' is used when referring to an Activ employee living with a disability. The term 'customer' is used to refer to a person living with disability that Activ supports.
